

CHAUTAUQUA OPENS WITH MUSICAL TREAT

Beauchamp, Journalist Orator, Lectures Tonight on "Take the Sunny Side."

The Chattanooga Redpath seven-day chautauqua opened this afternoon in the auditorium tent on Chamberlain field with a program given by the native Croatian Tamburica orchestra, which was a pleasing introduction to the big week of inspiration and entertainment.

A feature of the program was the tamburica music, the tamburica being the musical instrument of the Croats. Tamburicas large, small and medium-sized were used. The players all appeared in native costumes, which were bright and novel in effect.

Tonight, Leon J. Beauchamp, who is known the country over as "The Humorous Philosopher," will give his lecture, "Take the Sunny Side." Mr. Beauchamp has seen much of life and talks from a world of experience. He is a traveler, journalist and orator of note. He was reared among the Indians of the southwest, but so educated himself that at the age of 19 had become managing editor of a large and influential daily newspaper in Cincinnati.

The night program will begin at 8:30 o'clock, at which time the Croats will give a short concert as a prelude to the lecture.

Monday afternoon the program will be a grand concert by Alfred Hiles, Bergen, noted baritone; Vera Poppe, one of the three great cellists in America today, and Richard Irving, concert pianist. Monday also the children's hour work for the week will get into full swing under the direction of a trained children's worker. This work is preparatory to a great pageant, "Circus Time in Fairy Land," which will be given by the children on the sixth day of the chautauqua.

TWO CLOSING RECITALS AT SCHOOL OF MUSIC

Mrs. R. L. Teichfuss will present her music pupils in two recitals Thursday, June 20, at the Chattanooga School of Music, 532 Chestnut street. One will be at 10 o'clock in the morning and the other at 8:15 in the evening.

FOREIGN MISSIONARY SOCIETIES TO MEET

The Women's Foreign Missionary society will meet Wednesday, June 12, at the Highland Park Methodist church.

Mrs. F. W. Bristol, wife of Bishop Bristol, will speak. All societies of the Chattanooga district have been invited. At noon luncheon will be served to the visitors.

The ladies of the Second Presbyterian church will serve supper Saturday at 6 o'clock to the soldiers and officers of Camp Greenleaf. Following the supper the young people will entertain with a social.

UNUSUAL TALENT EVINCED ON PROGRAM OF SONGS

Brilliant Soloists Heard in Closing Concert of August Schmidt's Pupils.

A group of talented singers presented a program of rare excellence Friday night in the studio of August Schmidt, vocal instructor, the event marking the close of the week of recitals and being the artists' concert of the series.

Mrs. R. H. Lane gave a beautiful rendering of Tosti's "Dreams." Miss Mary Ross Lloyd sang, "The Pilot," by Protheroe, and "Ecstasy," by Rummel, very artistically, the songs having been on her coming-out program Thursday. Miss Estelle Hulse sang the "Pearl and Song" by Hulse Lehman, and "Absence" by William, the latter being especially well adapted to the tenderness and appeal of the voice.

Miss Willie Webb, with fine coloratura power, gave a sparkling interpretation of Hawley's "Gay Butterfly."

Miss Daisy Wolfe sang "Across the Hills" by Chadwick. Her voice is a pronounced contralto of much sweetness and range.

Miss Mary Joe Houston, very young, but with a voice possessing wonderful possibilities, as well as remarkable present achievement, sang in French the "Jewel Song," from the "Fount" of Gounod. Later she sang the original "Marsellaise."

Miss Marguerite McWhorter, mezzo soprano, gave a fine rendition of an aria from "Nadeshda," singing the song with much expression.

Miss Mary Ward Hatcher was heard in three numbers, an aria from "La Tosca," moonlight song; and "If I Were a Bird." The young singer was never in better voice and fairly

FIRST OF SERIES OF COURTESIES TO ENLISTED MEN TO BE HELD TONIGHT

Francis M. Walker chapter, United Daughters of the Confederacy, will be hostess tonight at a party for enlisted men to be given at 8 o'clock in the rotunda of the courthouse.

The invitations were sent to 500 soldiers of Fort Oglethorpe, through the designation of Mr. Dunham, the number composing one of the units. It is planned to have the entertainment the initial one of a series, to include in the invitations other groups of soldiers. Mrs. I. D. Strong, president of the organization, and Mrs. Leon Henderson, chairman of entertainment, are in charge of the arrangements. Other chairmen are Mrs. John G. Rawlings, reception; Mrs. Arch Fairley, decorations; Mesdames H. E. Dyke and W. F. Ruff, serving; Mrs. R. C. Bickwell, refreshments; Miss Margaret Saunders, music; Mrs. Harry Burnette, invitation. The president of each woman's organization in the city will serve as chaperon and invite a group of young ladies to greet the soldier boys. The cards of invitation, however, were sent only to the soldiers.

The decorations will be very attractive and confined to the rotunda. American flags will be draped across the wall spaces and entwined about the pillars. Potted palms and jardiniere of magnolias will be grouped in every niche and along the floor spaces. The upper corridors will probably be used for dancing.

Music will be furnished by the orchestra of Camp Greenleaf, stationed in the main rotunda. Ice cream and cake will be served, buffet fashion. The party was planned for May 1, but owing to unfavorable weather conditions was delayed to the present period.
